In following to the International Conference on Gender Empowerment (ICGEm2012) participated by 14 countries in Jakarta, Indonesia; the Gender Harmony movement continues to the world. During March 2013 (in CSW57 New York), June 2013 (in UNHCR Session 23 Geneva), August 2013 (in World Education XWEC Bali); GH Training for Facilitators (Jakarta, Feb 2014); Preconference meeting 2014, Jakarta (6 countries), CSW59 (March 2015, New York City), Jakarta International Conference My Harmony My World (2015 by 6 countries), CSW60 (March 2016, New York City); more participants from about 55 countries altogether attended the Gender Harmony seminar. The respond was very good and encouraging. Therefore, the GH continues to move forwards in 2017 for the above mission.

The people interest is obvious; we need a hand in hand programme between men and women to change gender stereotypes, prevent domestic violence, harmonious living in family, family advancement and welfare that being supported by both parties: men and women! Declaration on Gender Harmony that has been endorsed in 2012 has sounding the Gender empowerment against poverty for Family Welfare. Women's empowerment is Family advancement towards future investment; thus women all over the world need to collaborate with men. Participation of men is truly encouraged. The gender empowerment and collaboration may bring family in synergy and have stronger coping mechanism to create their welfare, particularly free from poverty and domestic violence.

This world is changing over the time; however somehow it is not what we want. Women and children are still vulnerable, while most families are stick on them. Partnership between men and women is needed and somehow it did not work as it should be. Violence against women is becoming classic followed by children assaults while economic fluctuation and diversity among communities become matter – Peace & Harmony is needed! Let's talk how we can develop it within family, community and nation; Gender Harmony (GH) is ready to share the findings and knowledge on how to build resilience over stressors, preventing conflict and perform transformation within partnership towards unity within diversity! We will be together to upright the respect to life, including women's and girl's life for creating harmonious living on social, culture, economic and political aspects of the family, community, country and global world! The 'IC-GEm2017' invites you to participate actively and discuss the above as well as absorb the sharing knowledge accordingly.
